

Librarian's Tips for finding Science in the News

Designed for NS101

Your gateway to great resources: The Library:

<http://www.globeeducationnetwork.com/library/>

Online Librarian – Elaine Settergren – esettergren@msbcollege.edu

Please contact me with questions.

Databases:

Use the databases to find news articles.

Find databases by topic: <http://www.globeeducationnetwork.com/library/research-by-topic/>

TIPS:

- Click the “newspapers/news” tab.
- Use quotation marks for phrases.

Newspapers

- Gale's Science Resource Center – great place to start when you're looking for ideas!
- ProQuest – searches many, many newspapers at once!
- EBSCO's Environment Complete

Newspapers

This is a great database to search for environmental issues, like global warming or natural disasters.

Newspapers and Magazines in the Library

Looking for a specific newspaper or news magazine? Search the E-Journal Portal.

The E-Journal Portal can also tell you what periodicals are in the GU/MSB campus libraries. You can find these magazines and news papers in print in the GU/MSB libraries.

- Science News – great for getting ideas!
- Scientific American
- Discover
- National Geographic
- Minneapolis Star Tribune/Pioneer Press – or other local newspaper depending on your location
- Newsweek
- Time

Recommended Websites:

The New York Times – <http://nytimes.com/> - click the “science” link on the left.

BBC News – <http://news.bbc.co.uk/> - click on “science/nature” on the left

CNN – <http://www.cnn.com>

Breitbart.com - <http://www.breitbart.com/>

Google News – <http://www.google.com/news>

MSNBC – <http://www.msnbc.msn.com/>

Washington Post - <http://www.washingtontimes.com/>

Yahoo! News – <http://news.yahoo.com/>